SPAR AND CABOSA OFFER SOCCER IN AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

SHREVEPORT, LA, August 25, 2010: Shreveport Public Assembly & Recreation (SPAR) has joined forces with CABOSA (Caddo Bossier Soccer Association) to offer soccer to the youth enrolled in SPAR's After-School Programs at Airport Park and Valencia Park community centers. The goal of the collaboration is to provide every child that desires, the opportunity to play soccer regardless of skill or financial level, foster an enduring love for soccer in all children. As part of the program youth are taught the value of fair play, self confidence, leadership, good citizenship and soccer skills in a team environment.

For more information call Ric Granryd, Executive Director of CABOSA, at 318.798.7666.
